

Decide whether the following statements are true or false and correct the wrong ones.

1. Pinky understands her sister's problem. That's why she keeps her mouth shut.

true false

2. Both girls, Pinky and Jess, want their sari blouses to fit tightly.

true false

3. Jess plans to buy two different pairs of shoes for her sister's wedding, one to go with her sari, the other to go with her suit.

true false

4. Jess takes Jules with her into a pub to have a coke.

true false

5. An American scout is coming soon in order to look for talented young football players.

true false

6. The American women's football team earn enough money to live on. They are paid the same as the men.

true false

7. The members of the English women's football team earn a lot of money, too. true false

8. Joe makes Jess run two more laps around the pitch because she talked too much during the training. true false

9. Joe explains to Jess that a good football player has to play even if she is injured in order to prove that she is as strong as the others. true false

10. Jess falls in love with Joe. true false

What do you think are Joe's feelings for Jess? Give reasons for your opinion.